

2024 Workshops Sessions and Speakers

Help! My Relationships Are a Mess! - Rebecca Brock

While conflict is unavoidable in a broken world, healthy conflict-resolution, and even conflict-prevention, is possible through the guidance of the Scriptures. Come join us as we see what the Bible says and practical ways we can apply truth to our lives.

Delights or Distractions - Julie Knox

“Lord, thank you for these children...but why is this mothering gig so hard???” If these thoughts have ever raced through your head in moments of chaos, you are not alone! Join me as we look at what God has to say about our attitudes towards our children by investigating how God views us as His children.

Staying Upright in a Topsy-Turvy World - Julaine Appling

How's your gyroscope doing these days? Are you staying “centered” and upright amidst all the confusion? In our time together, we will look at righting our spiritual, mental, and emotional gyroscopes so that we can correctly respond to believers and non-believers regarding some of the critical issues we are facing.

Name Above Every Name - June Kimmel

When we know who God is, we can better trust Him for what He does! God reveals Himself to us through His many names given in the Bible. The psalmist tells us that those who know His name will put their trust in Him. We will consider how knowing the names of God can make a difference in how we live our lives for His glory today!

Nothing Satisfies Like the Gospel - Julie Baker (Personal Testimony)

In each of us there is a void we long to fill, but we chase after all the wrong things in a clumsy attempt to fill it. Successful careers, advanced degrees, status, money, men, motherhood, nice clothes...It all falls short. Julie will share where she looked for fulfillment and meaning, how encountering the Gospel finally gave her the true satisfaction she had sought for twenty-six years, and why she still delights in the Gospel today.

Kindred Spirits - Robin Jones

A Kindred Spirit..do you have one? Or more? Our friendships make a tremendous impact on our lives—especially as women! In this workshop we will search the Scriptures for God's views on friendship—the kind of friends we should have and the kind of friend we should be!

Delight in Decorating - Cara Balmer

Do you ever think, “I sure wish I knew how to decorate a cake or cupcakes for this special event I'm planning”? Sometimes the delight gives way to panic as we face the task of dessert decorating. Join me as I demonstrate some basic and advanced techniques and share what supplies you need to create “delightful” cakes and cupcakes.

Choir: “God has Spoken” ($3) - Suellen Stroup

This year we will be singing a newer song called “God has Spoken”. It is deep in meaning and theology, reminding us of ways God has chosen to speak with His people. You will be able to keep the music and take it home to your church and perform it there with a small group or choir.

Tone Chimes: Cheery Chimes - Linda Stevens

Doesn't hearing the rhythmic, mellow music of tone chimes make you smile? Having one (or two) of the chimes in your own hand is an even greater experience! With a basic knowledge of music notation and a little rhythm in your soul, you can be a part of the team tone chime challenge!
